What is

MUN

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Model United Nations (MUN) is a dynamic educational simulation where participants referred to as delegates of the United Nations. This engaging platform allows students and young leaders to explore the intricacies of international diplomacy, global issues, and the inner workings of the United Nations.

MUN educates participants about current global challenges and fosters essential skills in public speaking, negotiation, research, critical thinking, and teamwork. Participants are assigned to various committees mirroring those of the UN, such as the Security Council or General Assembly, where they represent their assigned countries or organizations and engage in discussions, negotiations, and debates to draft resolutions.

By participating in MUN, individuals gain a deeper understanding of global politics and diplomacy while developing skills that are invaluable for future careers in international relations and leadership.

Join the Bengal Engineering Conclave of Nations for an unparalleled experience in international diplomacy and leadership!

You will immerse yourself in a dynamic simulation of the United Nations, engaging with global issues and fostering essential skills in public speaking, negotiation, and critical thinking.

WHY BECON

As part of this esteemed event, you'll have the opportunity to represent countries from around the world, draft resolutions, and collaborate with like-minded individuals to address pressing global challenges.

By participating in BECON, you'll not only enhance your understanding of international relations but also develop a network of future leaders and diplomats. Don't miss this chance to shape your future and contribute to a more informed global community!

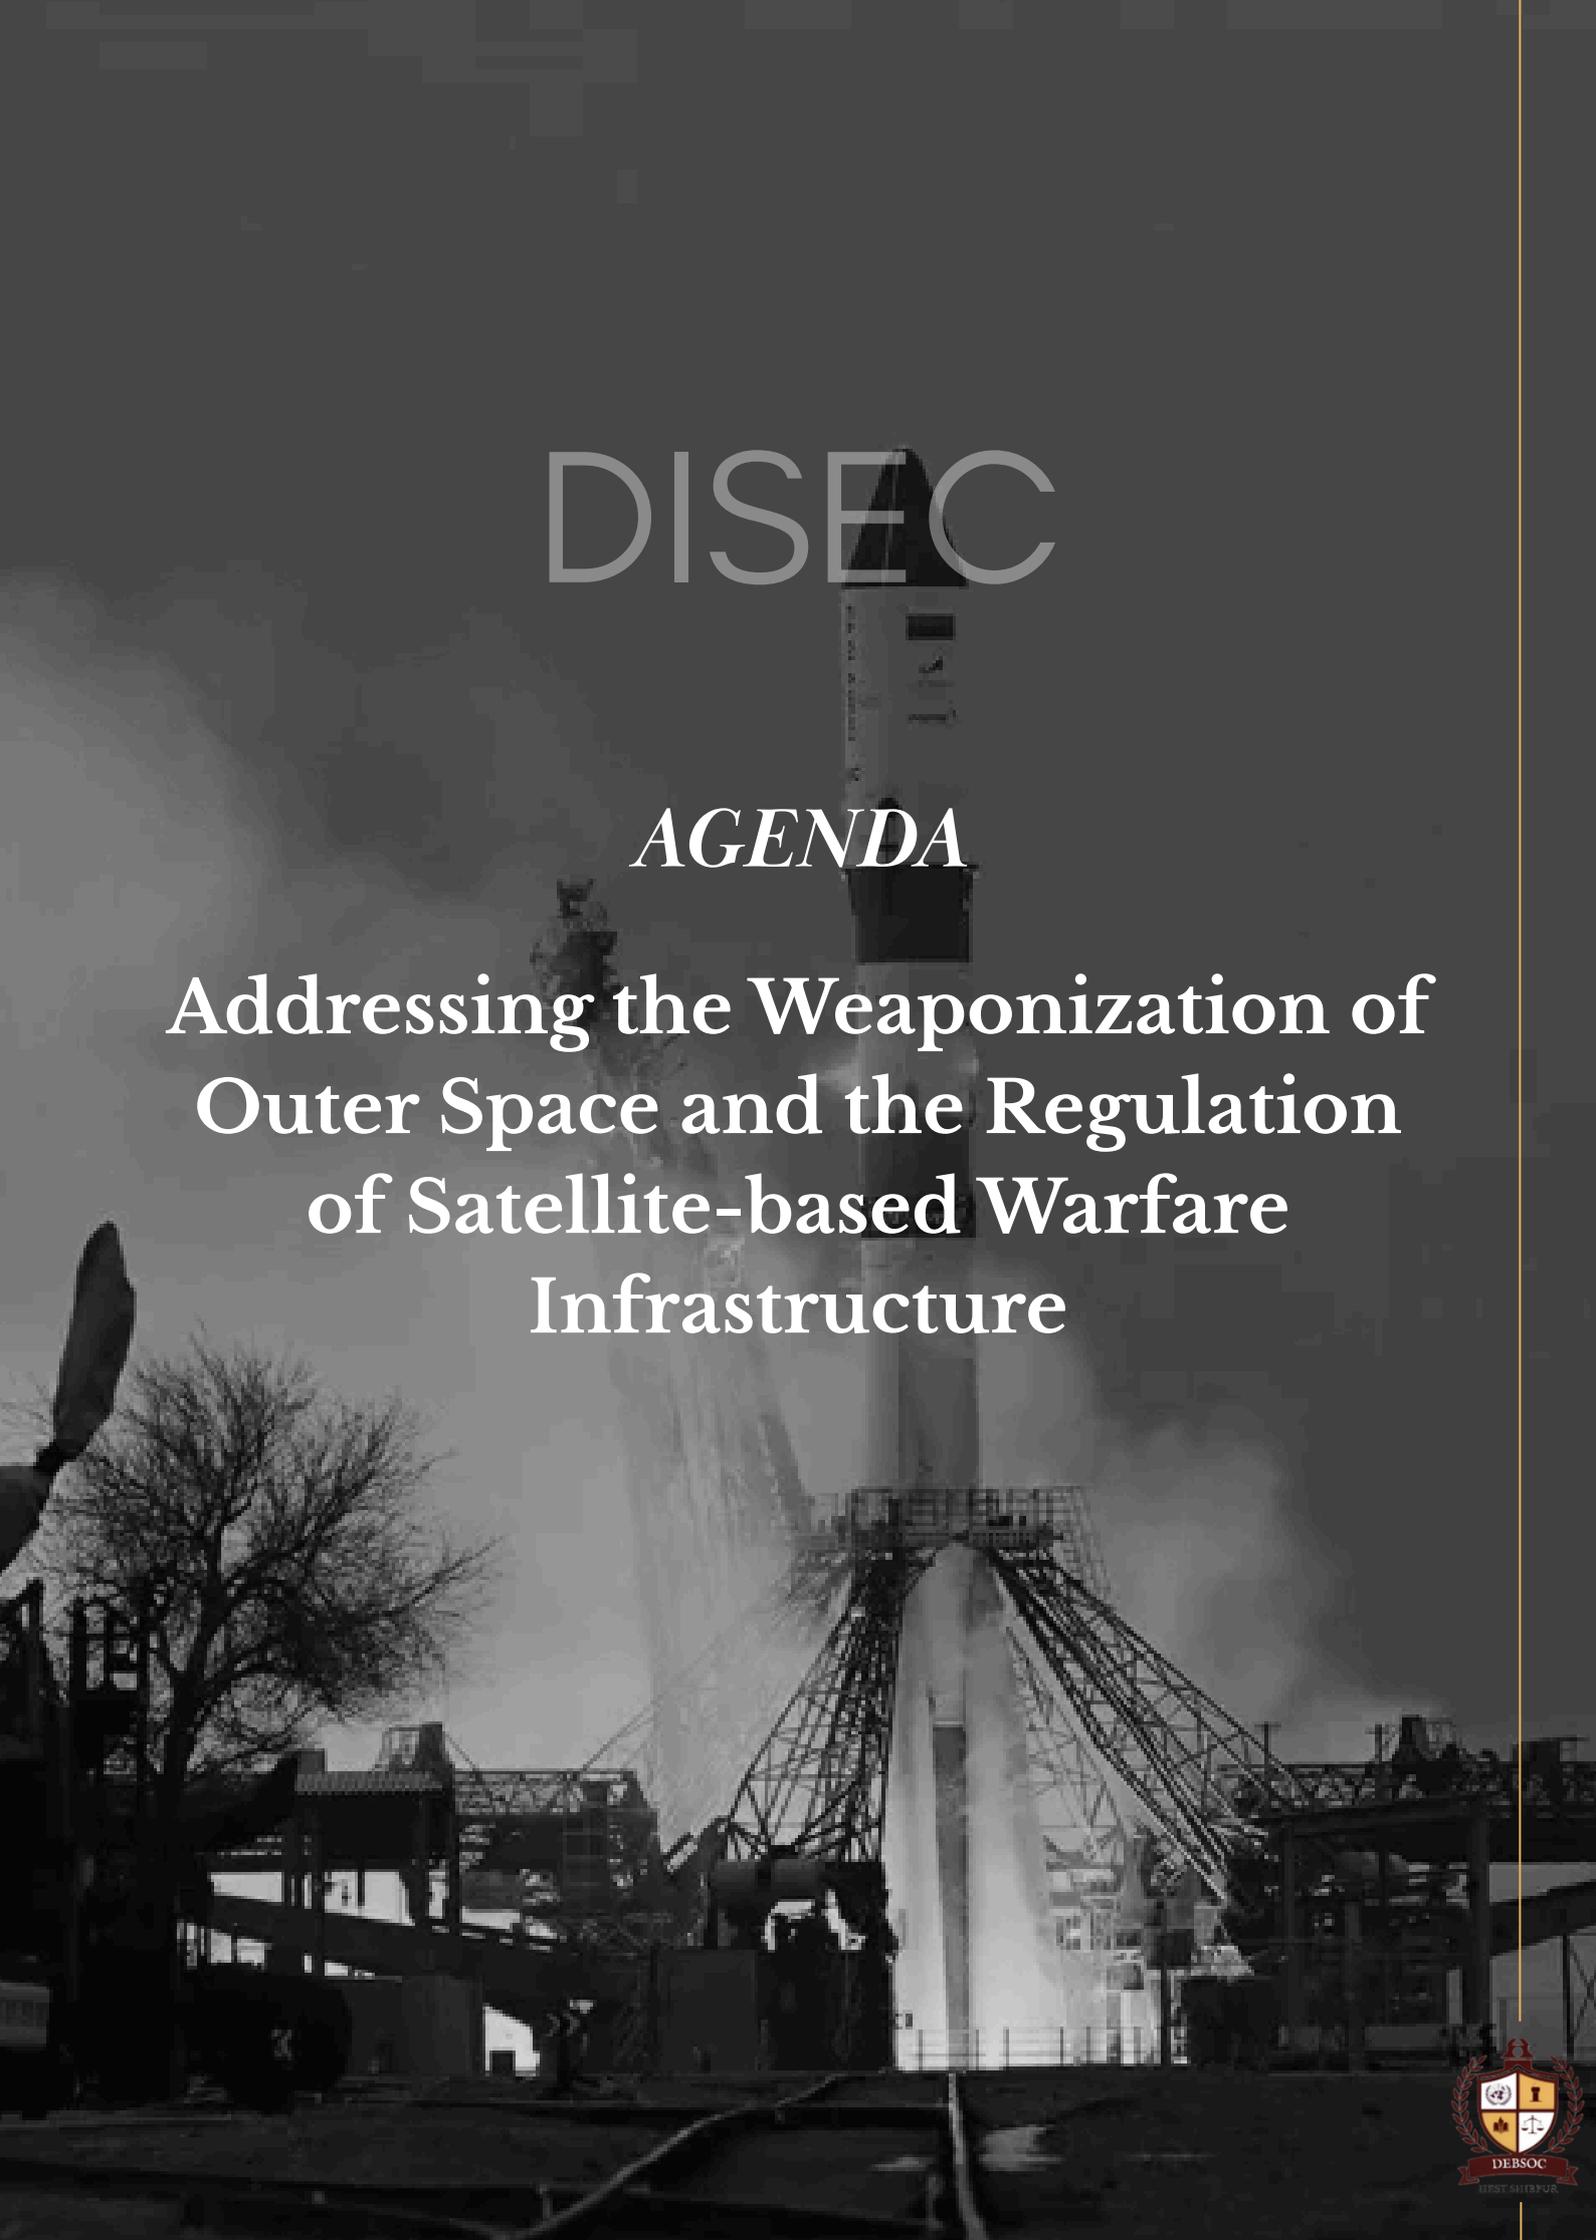

COMMITTEES

DISEC

The Disarmament and International Security Committee (DISEC) focuses on global peace, arms control, and international security challenges.

Delegates debate issues such as nuclear proliferation, emerging military technologies, terrorism, and regional conflicts. The committee encourages strategic diplomacy, critical thinking, and collaboration, requiring participants to balance national interests with global stability through meaningful discussion and resolution building.
